New Partner at Rödl & Partner Poland

Jarosław Kamiński has become the new Partner at Rödl & Partner Poland. The appointment ceremony took place during an international corporate event – the International Convention in Nuremberg.

Jarosław Kamiński has been with Rödl & Partner Poland since 2014. He graduated from the Law and Administration Faculty of Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan and the Foreign Language College at Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan, and completed the Postgraduate Tax Studies at Łazarski University.

He became attorney at law in 2014. He is lead auditor (ISO 27001:2017) and internal auditor (ISO 9001). He specialises in M&A, legal, tax and financial due diligence. He also advises clients on commercial and corporate law, personal data and compliance.

It is an honour for me to join the ranks of Partners at Rödl & Partner Poland. This nomination is a result of our joint achievements and shared success as a team. Rödl & Partner always strives for excellence and innovation and I will continue my efforts to deliver top-quality services to our clients. Working with such qualified and motivated professionals is a great privilege and an inspiration for further development, says Jarosław Kamiński, the new Partner.
