Renata Kabas-Komorniczak on the prestigious Forbes Women Poland's 25 Female Lawyers List

Renata Kabas-Komorniczak, a Managing Partner at Rödl & Partner, has been recognised on Forbes Women Poland's list of the Top 25 Female Lawyers in Business. This ranking, compiled in collaboration with the Women in Law Foundation, honours women who not only excel professionally, but also engage socially by working for equality and inspiring others.

Renata Kabas-Komorniczak is a leader with long-standing experience who has been a Managing Partner at Rödl & Partner since 2020. She started her career with the firm in 2004, when she took up the position of a BPO manager. Over the years, she has not only risen through the ranks of the organisation, but has also spearheaded the implementation of a Lean Management programme, which now operates in 30 countries and covers 1,100 employees. But her activities go beyond business.

Renata Kabas-Komorniczak has been actively involved in the community work for many years. She is the co-founder and president of the Kochasz Dopilnuj Foundation, which promotes the prevention of breast cancer in women and testicular cancer in men. She also works for gender equality in business by supporting initiatives that promote equal opportunities for women in the workplace.

This award is a great honour for me, but it also confirms that professional success should go hand in hand with social responsibility. I believe that each and every one of us can create a tangible impression on the world around us – not only through our work, but also through actions that inspire others to make positive changes, said Renata Kabas-Komorniczak in the comment on her award. I would like to congratulate all the female lawyers awarded in the ranking, and thank the committee for the trust they have placed in me.

This is already the fourth edition of this ranking, which highlights the importance and influence of women in the legal industry in Poland.
